

Minutes for General Body Meeting
September 21, 2023, 4:30 PM
Arts & Letters Room 307 and Zoom

Values of the folks at the meetings today!

Chloe: Respect

David: Understanding

Erick: Listening and respect

Emma: Patience and sharing

Jess: Complexity and Positionality (presenting your lived experience as valid thing)

Anton: Respect and paying attention to others. Reuben: Respecting and understanding others POV.

Tammy: Curiosity ("when people are more curious about each other and the environment/space they occupy it makes more room for understanding")

Elijah: Hopes we can do some coalition building as a group. Hopes as well for people to express their identity politics, but to move past that and come together and think about everyone's struggle. Looking for space for radical thinking and a shake-up in thinking at DePaul. (NOBODY IS FREE UNTIL EVERYBODY IS FREE)

Kaelynn: Openness to learn and expressing yourself.

Ava: Community and empathy -- listening to each other's learned experiences and identities.

Roxanne: Patience and respectful listening. Like Elijah, wants to ACT OUT!

Nicole: Community and Knowledge! Finch: Patience, understanding, and compassion

Damien: Radical thought and community. TAKE UP YOUR OWN SPACE!! (wasn't a value but was a pride moment, but I thought it was definitely an important thing to say!)

Future event discussion!

Ideas listed by Chloe: Movie night, Mutual aid campaign, Radical library

David: Discussion of remote learning as an accommodation!

Power door activators

David putting together memo about rejected accommodations!

Chloe discussed body doubling meetings
